Member's Meeting

Builders. Remodelers. Trade Professionals. Members & Potential New Members Welcome!

A recent Harvard University Remodeling Futures conference explained – there is a new term “buy now, wait now” for what’s going on in construction. The average consumer right now is willing to wait on average 66 days – this was unheard of a year ago!

JOIN THE DISCUSSION ...

- Managing client expectation
 - Covid delays, both with manpower and supplies/materials.
